Psalm Response

Psalm 118:1; 19-29

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
his love endures forever.
Open for me the gates of the righteous;
I will enter and give thanks to the LORD.
This is the gate of the LORD
through which the righteous may enter.
I will give you thanks, for you answered me;
you have become my salvation.
The stone the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone;
The LORD has done this,
and it is marvelous in our eyes.
The LORD has done it this very day;
let us rejoice today and be glad.
LORD, save us!
LORD, grant us success!
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD.
From the house of the LORD we bless you.
The LORD is God,
and he has made his light shine on us.
With boughs in hand,
join in the festal procession up to the horns of the altar.
You are my God,
and I will praise you;

You are my God,
and I will exalt you.
Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
his love endures forever.

Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Loving God, you rode a donkey and came in peace, humbled yourself and gave yourself for us. We confess our lack of humility. As you entered Jerusalem, the crowds shouted "Hosanna: 'Save us now!'" On Good Friday they shouted "Crucify!" We confess our praise is also often empty. As the crowd laid their palms in front of you, you took no glory for yourself. We confess that we want to be accepted and take the easy way. We do not stay true to your will. Forgive us, Lord, and help us to follow in the way of obedience.

(All may offer their personal prayers of confession silently.)

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Questions for Discussion

Making Room for the Kingdom of God - Matthew 21:1-11

Opening Discussion:

- What is the biggest public celebration you've ever been part of? What was being celebrated? How did people participate?

Digging Deeper:

- Read Matthew 21:1-11 which describes another great public celebration and is filled with messianic imagery.
- As Jesus and the disciples made their way to Jerusalem, what instructions did he give to two of them?
- How does Matthew explain why Jesus wanted to enter Jerusalem on a donkey? (See Matthew 21:4-5, and Zechariah 9:9ff.)
- In verse 8 what did the crowd do as Jesus entered the city? Why did they do it?
- What did the crowd shout in verse 9? What is the significance of the title "Son of David"? (See also Matthew 1:1; 17; 2 Samuel 7:12-16.)
- Psalm 118 is a great psalm of thanksgiving, praising God for saving his people. What connections can you find between this psalm and the account of Jesus entering Jerusalem, as well as other events in Holy Week? (See especially verses 22-27.)
- Read Matthew 21:1-11 once more, this time noting all the ways that Jesus is being portrayed as the Messiah.

Life Application:

- Jesus came to establish the Kingdom of God. How would you describe the nature of this Kingdom? How is it different from the worldly kingdoms we see around us today?
- What does it mean to you to proclaim Jesus as Lord over your life? Is it more about following a set of rules; or embodying a way of life? How would you describe that life?
- In what ways does your life embody the Kingdom of God; in what ways do you fall short?
- Are there other powers in this world that get in the way of your allegiance to Jesus?

Suggestions for Prayer:

- Pray that Jesus would be King over every part of your life.
- Pray for more of Christ's presence in your life, that you might better display the Kingdom of God through your words and actions.
