Lighting the Advent Candle of Love

Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Merciful God, always with us, always coming: We confess that we do not know how to prepare for your Advent. We have forgotten how to hope in miracles; we have ignored the promise of your kingdom; we get distracted by all the busyness of this season. Forgive us, God. Grant us the simple wonder of the shepherds, the intelligent courage of the Magi, and the patient faith of Mary and Joseph, that we may journey with them to Bethlehem and find the good news of a child born for us. Now, in the quiet of our hearts, we ask you to make us ready for his coming.

(People silently offer their personal confessions to God.)

Declaration of Forgiveness

Pastor: Friends, believe the Good News:

People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

Anthem

People, Look East

(arr. Howard Helvey)

People, look East. The time is near of the crowning of the year.
Make your house fair as you are able. Trim the hearth and set the table.
People, look East, and sing today: "Love, the Guest, is on the way."
Furrows, be glad. Though earth is bare, one more seed is planted there.
Give up your strength, the seed to nourish; that in course, the flow'r may flourish.
People, look East, and sing today: "Love, the Rose, is on the way."
Birds, though you long have ceased to build, guard the nest that must be filled.
Even the hour when wings are frozen, He for fledgling time has chosen.
People, look East, and sing today: "Love, the Bird, is on the way."
Stars, keep the watch. When night is dim, one more light the bowl shall brim;
Shining beyond the frosty weather, bright as sun and moon together.
People, look East, and sing today: "Love, the Star, is on the way."
Angels, announce with shouts of mirth Christ who brings new life to earth.
Set ev'ry peak and valley humming with the Word, the Lord is coming.
People, look East, and sing today: "Love, the Lord, is on the way."

Reflection Questions

Background: King Ahaz ruled for around 20 years and was a corrupt King of Judah. He desecrated the Temple with some practices which eventually led to the downfall of the Kingdom of Judah many years after he was gone. Isaiah has a word of judgment and hope from God to King Ahaz in this passage. According to Isaiah 7, three powers are coming after King Ahaz's rule even though they will not succeed according to the Lord in vs.7-9. King Ahaz is unsure how to respond to these promises and perhaps hedging his decision as he considers how this interaction will play out for him. His corruption and self-serving nature is getting the best of him.

Opening Questions:

What are some of your favorite signs in the world today? They can be from the business world, school, friends, sports teams, etc. Why do they mean so much to you?

Spend a few moments considering how different signs influence your behavior. For example, "When I see the _____ sign, it makes me want to _____."

Dwelling in the Text:

What does Isaiah tell King Ahaz to do toward God? And why do you think Ahaz responds the way he does?

What does the boundary of Sheol (the dead) and Heaven tell us about what King Ahaz can ask of God?

Isaiah conveys four promises and threats. What are they?

1. Vs. 14

2. Vs. 15

3. Vs. 16

4. Vs. 17

As Christians, we know that Isaiah's word to King Ahaz is now understood to be fulfilled in Jesus Christ. The reference to Isaiah 7 is in the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter 1 vs 22-23, "All this took place to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet: "Look, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel," which means, "God is with us."

When you think about the arrival of Jesus, who is "God with us," what type of comfort/confidence does it give you?

Where would you like to see God show up in the world today to make right that which is wrong?
