Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Christ is Enough - Philippians 3:1-11

Summary: Paul is concerned that the Philippian church is susceptible to people who think Christ is not enough in their life. Instead of trusting and believing that Christ's life, death, and resurrection are enough to reconcile their relationship with God and one another, some people believe that more is needed to restore the relationship. In other words, some people want to add something to their faith rather than live from the grace and peace they have in Christ Jesus.

In Paul's day, some Jews thought it was necessary to continue the ritual of circumcision as an essential of the faith instead of trusting in baptism through the Holy Spirit. Paul wants to ensure that the Philippian church knows that their faith in Christ is sufficient for their salvation and reconciliation with God and one another.

Connecting:

1. Share what was meaningful to you from the message this week.
2. When was a time in your life that your titles/credentials did not make a difference in attaining a role or accomplishing a task?

Listening and Acting in Faith:

1. For early Jews, circumcision was the sign of the covenant between God and his people. For Christians, the sign is baptism. What is at stake if the early Christians believed they also needed to be circumcised when they became a Christian through baptism? (Romans 2:28-29)
2. What is at stake for Paul in describing his background to the Philippian church?
3. What is the connection between Judaism and the early church?
4. Why is it essential for the church to understand that Christianity relates to the Old Testament?

Listening and Acting:

1. In what way do you try to justify your faith to others outside of Jesus Christ or in what way do you try to prove that you are good enough for Christ?
2. When have you suffered in your life because of your faith?

Opening Hymn Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us #330

Responsive Reading Psalm 130

Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD.
Lord, hear my voice!
Let your ears be attentive
to the voice of my supplications!

If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities,
Lord, who could stand?
But there is forgiveness with you,
so that you may be revered.

I wait for the LORD, my soul waits,
and in his word I hope;
my soul waits for the Lord
more than those who watch for the morning,
more than those who watch for the morning.

O Israel, hope in the LORD!
For with the LORD there is steadfast love,
and with him is great power to redeem.
It is he who will redeem Israel
from all its iniquities.

Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Gracious God, our sins are too heavy to carry, too real to hide, and too deep to undo. Forgive what our lips tremble to name, what our hearts can no longer bear, and what has become for us a consuming fire of judgement. Set us free from a past that we cannot change; open to us a future in which we can be changed; and grant us grace to grow more and more in your likeness and image; through Jesus Christ, the light of the world. Amen.
(People silently offer their personal confessions to God.)

Declaration of Forgiveness
